

Thurgood Marshall Middle School

WHO DO I CALL WHEN...

I'm worried about my student's grades – Guidance Counselor and/or Teachers

My child is having personal relationship problems with peers – Guidance or Social Worker

I'm worried my child is bullying or being bullied by someone – Social Worker is bullying coordinator

I have a serious safety concern – Officer McDermott, Vice Principal Doucette, Vice Principal Pavia or Principal Cohen

I want to meet with the teachers in my child's cluster – the Guidance Counselor can arrange to set that up or you can email a teacher in the cluster directly. All email addresses are on the website under staff

I have a concern about how my child is being treated by school personnel – Principal Cohen

I have a health concern for my child: School nurses and Lynn Community Health Clinic

HOW DO I GET INFORMATION:

1. The website www.lynnschools.org/thurgoodmarshall. (check the electronic calendar, (HAC) Home Access Center)
2. All-calls go home – be sure your contact information is updated in the system.
3. The main office clerks – 781-477-7360
4. Notices and flyers that go home with your child
