“Intro to Oil Painting” will introduce you to the basics of painting and to painting specifically with oil paints. It is intended for the beginner as well as the intermediate painter who wants to review basic safety and techniques of oil painting. We will introduce creative ways of composing a painting, and to using the tools and materials of oil painting in a safe manner. By looking at the history of oil painting, we will study basic techniques for planning, designing, and painting oil paintings of your own. In a safe sharing circle, you will get feedback about the work that you do and what to do as future steps in your creative journey. This class is to be done at your own pace and you can paint many oil paintings or only one during the length of the class.
