Hello TMMS Community,

It was a strange week back with an unexpected snow day this week, but it was also great to be back and see everyone. We have lots of events and academics on our way so please continue to check the website and keep up to date with the weekly blast. This includes our MCAS schedule- see below, a Grade 07 and Grade 08 dance on March 9th, and a TMMS Night of Excellence on March 22nd. We also have two half days this month; March 8th and March 22nd. Please start talking to your students about the upcoming MCAS- we don't want to make anyone anxious over it, we want to be pumped up and ready to take it! We could also have help with messaging the importance of following the dress code, no cell phones during the school day, student ID (lanyards) worn and better behavior on our restrooms. The TMMS Community is wonderful but when you have this many middle schoolers, we could use all the help we can get in supporting best choices for behavior and academics. MOST IMPORTANTLY- The Parent Portal is now open and live on Powerschool which is where you can see your students' grades and attendance. Our Guidance Department is hosting a zoom option for parents, and we will also have a team ready on March 22nd in the cafeteria to assist you in logging on. Happy weekend to all of you!

Please Remember:
